Government Decree

amending the Government Decree on radio spectrum usage and frequency allocation plan

In accordance with a decision of the Government, section 7 of the Government Decree on Radio Spectrum Usage and Frequency Allocation Plan (1246/2014) is repealed, section 9(1) is amended, and subsection 5 is added to section 9 as follows:

Section 9

The frequency bands of 703–733 MHz and 758–788 MHz are allocated for terrestrial systems capable of providing electronic communication services.

The frequency bands of 1427–1452 MHz, 1452–1492 MHz, and 1492–1518 MHz are also allocated for terrestrial systems capable of providing electronic communication services. The frequency band of 1427–1452 MHz is also used for military purposes.

This Decree shall enter into force on [day] [month] 2016. However, section 9(5) shall enter into force on 1 January 2017.
